

the Lakota Cabin

(Option A)

American Homestead Series

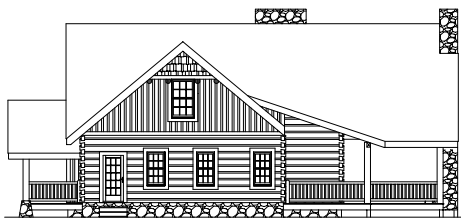

Total 2,041 Square Feet

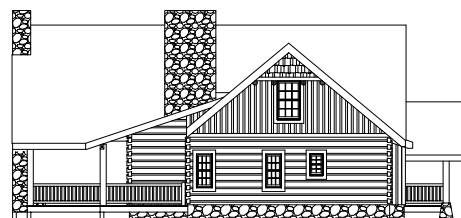

When you enter the Lakota Cabin you see through the house at the view beyond. The kitchen, dining room and great room are open to each other. The cook is never left out of the conversation. With a first floor guest room as well as master suite you can easily accommodate over night guest. Should you have a need for extra bedrooms, then these can be built in the bonus spaces next to the loft.
